INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS

On April 10, 1973, Mr. [] Administrative Assistant to Senator Charles H. Percy was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Mr. [] advised that in January, 1972, he was working in Senator Percy's Office in Chicago, Illinois, coordinating the Senator's re-election campaign. After several employees had reported hearing clicks on the telephone, he, on the recommendation of a friend, had a private investigator conduct a "sweep" of the office to determine if there were any "bugs". The private investigator conducted the sweep and advised [] that he had found evidence of a "tap" on the private telephone line of the [], Mrs. []. Mr. [] then contacted the Chicago Division, FBI.

Special Agents of the Chicago Division, FBI checked the office and found no evidence of any type of listening device.

On April 10, 1973, Senator Charles H. Percy was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI. Senator Percy advised that he has absolutely no evidence that anyone has been unlawfully intercepting his communications or that anyone has made any attempt to do so. He further advised that he has made no statements regarding any interception of or attempts to intercept his communications. Senator Percy advised that the incident in his Chicago, Illinois Office, which was handled by his Administrative Assistant Mr. [], was the only instance he could recall where a possible interception of communications at any office he maintains was mentioned.

On April 10, 1973, Assistant United States Attorney [] Washington, D.C., advised that inasmuch as it appears that there has been no violation of the Interception of
